One pack a day. One follower wins the binder.

MrCardsTCG is Miguel's English-language Pokémon and trading-card channel. He opens new releases, older sets and vintage packs, sharing the cards and artwork as he goes. Through his daily challenge in 2026, he is putting the standout cards into a binder for one follower to win at year end.

About Miguel

Miguel was born in Lisbon and raised in London. He later lived in Brazil and is now based in Zaragoza, Spain.

He opens older and vintage Pokémon packs that can be hard to find in normal retail or expensive on the secondary market, letting viewers discover their cards and artwork without buying the packs themselves.

The daily collection is tracked on Collectr, with its cards protected by PROTECC. Viewers comment and occasionally vote on binder additions. Shop visits, such as Vintage 66 in Zaragoza, are separate examples of his work.

After conversations with young people and parents, Miguel also sees potential for informal English listening practice through Pokémon. Spanish subtitles or translated audio may help viewers follow along, depending on the video and platform.
